What is the Racine-Kenosha Reading Council??

RKRC is a professional organization made up of reading specialists, researchers, librarians, administrators, classroom teachers, parents, and anyone who is genuinely concerned with the improvement and teaching of reading and life-long literacy.

Why should you belong to RKRC?

- Excellent programs and speakers provide opportunities for professional growth
- Network with others dedicated to the improvement of literacy
- Share programs and ideas
- Resources of Wisconsin State Reading Association (WSRA) and the International Reading Association (IRA) available
- Stay current and informed with what is happening in Wisconsin.
- Meet fantastic people just like yourself, who want to further literacy in our community!
